Indorse Ott for Congress. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., September 11.—The Rockingham County Republican Convention met in Harrisonburg Saturday afternoon to select delegates to the Seventeenth Congressional District Convention which meets in Charlottesville Wednesday, to nominate a candidate for Congress to run against Hon. James Hay, the incumbent and Democratic nominee.

The names of John Paul and E. Dulaney Ott, two young Harrisonburg Republicans, were before the convention. By a vote of 53 to 31 the convention indorsed Ott for the nomination, the vote being a victory for the Ackers-Keelers, or organization faction.

The anti-organization forces held a second convention later in the afternoon and elected contesting delegates for the Charlottesville convention, indorsing Paul for the nomination.

RICHMONDERS FINED. St. Crawford Officer Holds Stop Watch on Automobile Party. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., September 11.—Sergeant Lego's far-famed stopwatch is on the job again. An auto party of Richmonders and Ashlanders was halted in Harrisonburg Friday by a telephone message from the relentless Lago, saying that the autoists had exceeded the Mt. Crawford speed limit. A compromise was made over the phone, the offending speeders paying a fine of $10 and costs of a total of $18.50 with the Harrisonburg officer. In the party were Weldon Blanton and a Mr. Rice.

Herman—Fudge. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., September 11.—Dr. John S. Herman, formerly of Weyer's Cave, now a druggist at Covington, and Miss Lottie Kyle Fudge, also of Covington, were married Thursday, Rev. L. H. Paul officiating. They are now on an automobile wedding trip through the Valley of Virginia.

LET DEMOCRATS DEMAND THE BOOKS

Make Republicans Show How Figures Have Been Juggled.

VOTERS SHOULD KNOW

With "Inside Facts" Published G. O. P. Would Go to Smash.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, September 11.—When Congressman Charles C. Cannon, of the Virginia District, was in Washington a day or two ago, he made the statement that the Republicans "should be made to show the books."

"What the Democrats need," he said, "to put them on the winning side this fall in the national election in 1912, is to demand of the Republicans who are going about the country making claims for everything good and reputations for everything bad is to demand of the latter that they show the books. In other words, the voters of the country should be made acquainted with conditions as they exist at the present time in such a way that any one may understand. I fear that there has been much juggling in order to reach a balance, and are going to demand, the Democrats, and I have no doubt that there will be a fearful liepunch can smash. If we can only get behind the scenes long enough to tell the people what is really taking place, some wonderful revelations will come."

Colonel Cannon said that, "showing the books," one need not go a hundred miles from Washington to see which way the political wind blows. Up to two weeks ago there seemed to be an opinion here among the Republicans that the Democrats and the breakers for the House this fall, with the odds just a bit on the Democratic side. The margin was none too large for the Democrats at that time. Within the last few days that sentiment has changed. The field just that much wider is being done the Republican chances of getting the House and just that much harder is the task being made for President Taft to get the machine running smoothly again. Col. Cannon said he had done nothing but one Roosevelt has done nothing but changed a dozen votes in the territory which he is traversing, and even some of his strongest supporters are wondering just what he means to do.

One thing has almost become certain here recently. President Taft probably will not appoint any more of those of his own naming. Any one who doubts that such a plan is not only on foot but is actually being put into execution has venue collectors who have recently supplanted the names of internal revenue the reason for such changes. Not only this, but all over the country fourth-class party masters who have been serving for eight or ten years and are serving to resign, but the Post-Office Department is never made public.

The first tip that such a move was on foot came from an employee of the Treasury Department about a month ago, and since that time those who have followed the money have become convinced that the Roosevelt men in every department are being ousted to make room for Taft-Hitchcock appointees.

In this plan Postmaster-General Hitchcock is President Taft's chief adviser. As an instance of how the game is being played, it was learned here a few days ago in South Carolina where three or four postmasters have been waiting for reappointment for more than a year, they were politely informed not long since that their allegiance was to be put to a test; that if they stood squarely up to President Taft they would have no more of another kind, and that if they did not, they might look for retirement.

Cannon a "Dead One." The latest interesting political gossip to reach Washington is that Speaker Cannon has definitely decided not to stand for re-election. He spoke in the Sixty-second Congress in 1910, and he has retained control of the House. He has been told, it is said, that with the Republican party split worse than it has been in years, and with the breach becoming wider every day, he must, however much he may dislike to do so, give up the post of Speaker. Cannon is not a man who is easily adaptable to the rank and file of Republicans alike—to both standpatters and insurgents—and that if he fails to need this advice he will not only be elected Speaker for another term, but will be practically repudiated by his constituents. The fact is clear to any one familiar with present-day affairs that Cannon—though a game fighter—is a dead one politically. That he is largely responsible for his own demise because of his tyrannical and exclusive methods no one will deny. With the Democrats and insurgents pouring twelve pounders into Cannon and his Regular allies, the end of Cannonism is at last at hand. P. N. MCG.

SUFFOLK ACTION NOT SO DRASTIC

Resolution "Respectfully Requests" Investigation of Primary.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Suffolk, Va., September 11.—Mass-meetings of protest against the action of the Democratic District Committee in warding the certificate of Democratic congressional nomination to William A. Young without investigating charges of alleged fraud, were held yesterday in Suffolk, Franklin and Smithfield. The Suffolk meeting did not produce the degree of enthusiasm that was anticipated by the radicals, though there was unanimous sentiment in favor of an investigation. Out of 182 persons who attended the meeting, twenty-nine voiced any expression by their votes.

The politicians were divided as to the temper of resolutions needed, and there were introduced. Counsel of conservatism prevailed, and the least drastic resolution was adopted, 18 to 11. There were hits and misses of abuse for the District Committee and demands upon the State Committee, but the resolution accepted is mild, and "respectfully requests" the State Committee for an investigation, asking that a proper award be made, and that if the winner could not be determined, that a new primary be held.

Holland Leads Conservatives. State Senator Holland pleaded for conservatism, and said that though charges had been made they are unproved.

A somewhat drastic paper presented by former Delegate Robert W. Withers never received a vote.

Dr. H. W. Campbell was in favor of requesting the resignation of the majority of the District Committee.

Dr. Campbell made the probe for your vote to be tampered with? He questioned, "Are you going to be driven like sheep or cattle? I had rather be a dog and may the moon. I do not propose to submit. I shall not submit."

A committee composed of Colonel R. L. Brewer, Jr., W. J. Kendrick and J. E. B. Holland was appointed to consider the resolutions to the State Central Committee.

Vigorous Action in Franklin. Forty persons attended the Franklin meeting, which adopted a resolution offering by former Delegate John C. Packer, who denounced the conduct of the primary and intimates that the people will not be bound by the primary laws if the probe is applied by the State Central Committee.

Delegate James R. Jordan presided over the Smithfield meeting, which had for its object the investigation by the State Committee. The chairman, Commonwealth's Attorney Parke P. Deans, and County Clerk A. S. Johnson were delegated to carry the resolutions before the State Committee.
